

1st International SoPro Congress

Socio-oecological production – Common sustainable economic activity

June 3rd and 4th, 2014 in Vienna

The 1st International SoPro Congress is directed at all those, who enjoy designing sustainable products, processes and projects

Responsible economic enterprises and social enterprises, networks of sustainability, CSR platforms and sustainable procurers will present experience gained, findings and best-practice examples. In addition, the results of supporting scientific investigations will be presented.

It is the target of social production to play a positive role in shaping social and economic changes in common through new types of regional and sustainable economic activities with social added value.

Find incentives for CSR leading products and cooperation partners for your economic processes!

Social production (SoPro) as a model of consultation, procurement and development promotes sustainable products and services and innovative cooperation with social-integrative enterprises. Through directed cooperation between enterprises, public clients and social enterprises, the model of "socio-ecological production" has arisen from the "SoPro HU-AT" EU project. At the SoPro Congress, the model of SoPro will be presented comprehensively.
